

overarching Core Program

The Art and Art History Department has a single Major, with two possible Concentrations: Art History or Studio Art. Department Faculty are currently transforming the curriculum so that it reflects an overtly global, interdisciplinary, transcultural, and critically engaged educational experience for our students. We aim to... who will enthusiastically participate in this revision of our curriculum... as students take courses in both art history and studio art, we expect all faculty in the program to actively participate in departmental projects, programming, and student activities across the disciplines of art history and studio art. We also... with the staff and programming at Oxy Arts: from working with... based curators to build courses connected to Oxy Arts exhibitions, to supporting our annual Wanlass Artists Residence.

Occidental faculty are committed teachers and scholars who bring research and creative discovery to life for students in classrooms, labs, studios, and mentored projects. They teach broadly in the curricula of their departments, advise students, carry out research and creative work, and provide departmental, college, and external service. In this position, your primary responsibilities will include the development and teaching of introductory and core courses in the discipline, including courses in your area(s) of specialization. Specific courses that you will teach include Art History courses (100... (FYS). You will also be responsible for producing scholarship commensurate with the requirements for tenure and will be expected to mentor students in self-directed research and, when appropriate, engage students directly in your research program. You will also be expected to contribute to and participate in the life and development of the department, advise students, serve on committees, and participate in broader college and disciplinary communities.

QUALIFICATIONS

Required Qualifications

- x Ph.D. in Art History (or a closely related field such as architectural history or archaeology) with a

- x This statement provides your unique perspective on your past and present contributions to and future aspirations for promoting justice, equity, inclusion, and diversity in your professional career. This should include your demonstrated commitment to, past evidence of, and future plans for creating equitable opportunities for learning and mentoring especially for students from marginalized and minoritized groups. The purpose of this statement is to help the department identify candidates who have professional experience, intellectual commitments, and/or willingness to engage in activities that could help the College contribute to its mission in these areas.
- x List of three references with relevant contact information
 - x If you advance to the finalist phase, you will be

All qualified applicants will be considered for employment, including those with criminal histories, in a manner consistent with the Fair Chance Initiative for Hiring Ordinance.

Occidental College is committed to working with and providing reasonable accommodations to applicants with qualifying disabilities. If you need reasonable accommodations, please contact the Office of Disability Services at (916) 461-1111.